a history of our time

when Gregory Lee Johnson burned an American flag as part of a political protest he was convicted for flag desecration under Texas law but the Supreme Court by a contentious 5 to 4 margin overturned that conviction claiming that Johnson's action constituted symbolic and thus protected speech. Heated debate continues to swirl around that controversial decision both hailed as a victory for free speech advocates and reviled as an abomination that erodes the patriotic foundations of American democracy. Such passionate yet contradictory views are at the heart of this landmark case. Book jacket
